

Micro stories 2018

Following our Christmas traditions, a new edition of the micro story writing contest was held at the Cuéllar Language school. We are convinced you will enjoy the winning stories as well as the rest of the tales. Thank you all for participating in our writing event!!!

Category A—B1

A1, A2, and B1

Adventure on the road

By M. Delia Muñoz Muñoz, A2

The driver of the car behind me was signalling to me. I was scared, so I stopped my car ... I had lost my registration plate!

Be happy with what life offers you

By Victoria Esteban Estrada, B1

There was a sad place where the sun never came out. At Christmas, the oldest person there made a wish and the sun shone.

The door of ...

By Marta Sayalero Andrés, A1

At dusk when I go the park, I always talk to the same person. But one day the locals addressed me and ... "What are you doing here ... so lonely?"

Twelfth Night

By Diana Gutiérrez Arévalo, B1

It's the best night. I saw how the Wise Men and their camels drank some milk the next morning. I loved opening gifts, but parents are the ...

WINNER!!!

My real life

By Alfonso de Pablos Gómez, A1

I opened my eyes; everything was fine. Then I woke up ...

It was just a dream

Children: The reason for life

By Marta Martín Espeso, A1

Like every night, the dream overcame me, crushed by uncertainty. "Children are a loan of life with which you committed yourself to ..."

Give my hair back!

By Noelia de Pablos Gómez, A1

Carla cried; Triana was hidden under the desk; their teacher was asking. Triana came out with scissors and her sister's ponytail in her hand.

University Specialization Awards

By Nuria Clemente García, B1

"You're back, Diane ... after so much time!" Eyes floating in alcohol. The image is blurred through the bottle, now empty.

Wishes

By Gonzalo Corral Martínez, A1

Two years ago I met it. It was pretty and I wanted to have it! I loved it and last Christmas... it was mine!

Category B2—C1

B2.1, B2.2, and C1

---

Lonely Christmas

By Lucía Martín Gozalo, B2.2

A cold night, she felt sad and solitary. She thought: “Don’t worry if you feel homesick at Christmas. It is not compulsory to be always happy”.

WINNER!!!

The Tree of Wishes

By Doria Paredes Gómez, B2.2

Everyday she gets up full of energy. Every day she gets closer to her dreams.

One day she got it, but she dreamed again

Nowhere to go

By Raquel Mateo de Pablos, B2.2

I was in a never-ending maze; but at last I saw her, and the memories unfold now.

You know: Life is a sigh

By Luis Ángel García, García, B2.2.

- Nurse! My father has gotten worse.

- It’s his last breath ... When you come you breathe in, when you go you breathe out.

Find us at <http://www.eoisdeegovia.net/>

SEGOVIA SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES
CUÉLLAR EXTENSION

STAFF

Eva Díaz Martín

Fernando J. Chueca Moncayo

Alberto Esteban Gil

I.E.S. Marqués de Lozoya

Ctra. Valladolid, 19 - 40200 - Cuéllar (Segovia)

Phone: 921 14 13 00

We like learning languages